DEDICATION

We wish to honor one in whom we have constantly confided, whose mind has always been open to our problems, and who, somehow has never failed to find a solution. We wish to thank a teacher who, in the process of enriching our minds has strengthened our characters to prepare us for the years ahead, both by classroom instruction—we can never forget "Julius Caesar" and "Silas Marner", and by sponsoring the organization dedicated to these goals, the National Honor Society. To you whose eleven years of understanding, guidance, and unselfish devotion has inspired Sophomores so that they might someday become worthy and responsible Seniors, we, the Class of 1969 dedicate our Vallis to Mrs. Evelyn Caldwell.

FOREIGN RELATIONSHIPS

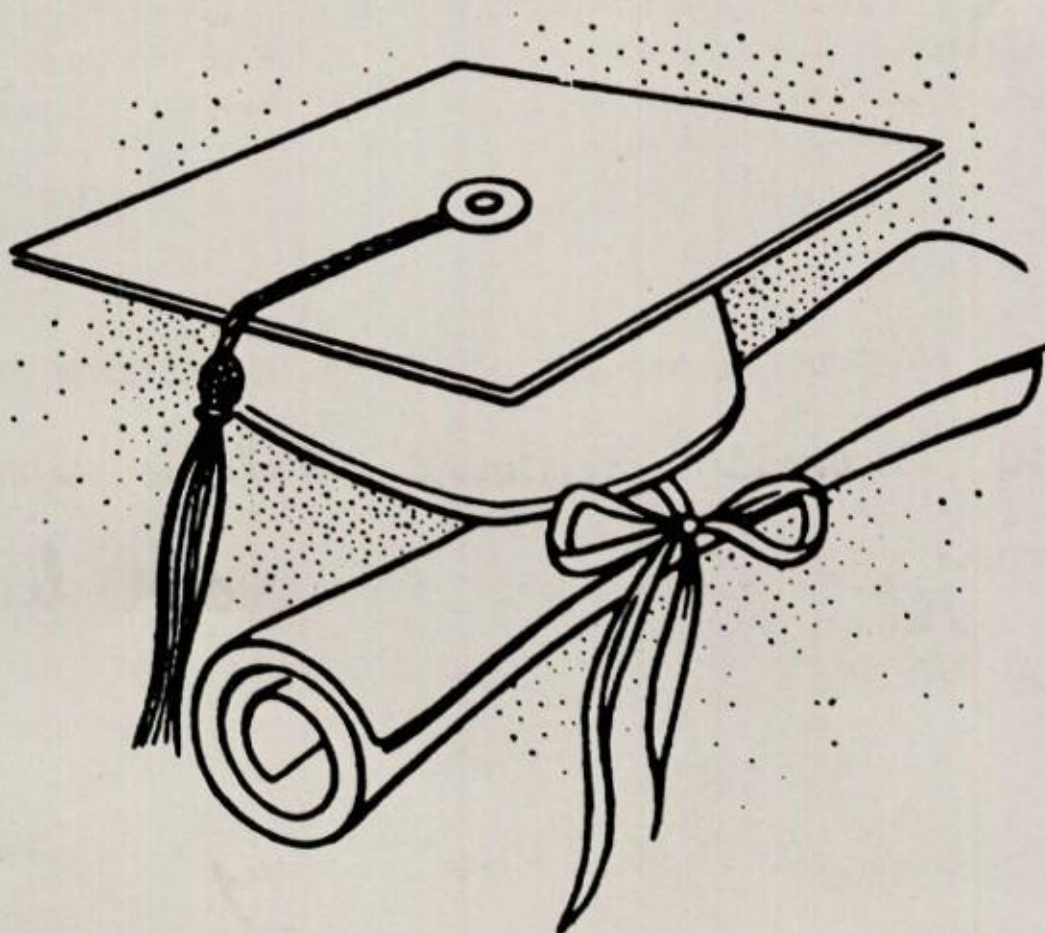

Roberto Rodrigues and Dave McDonald

Dave McDonald, Redbank's exchange student for 1968 left last June 26 for Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, where he stayed for 2½ months with the Ivan Lamounier family. He enjoyed the sun and the hospitality in Rio. On December 23, 1968, Roberto Rodrigues arrived in the United States. He stayed with the McDonald family, and attended school regularly. He was quite fascinated the first time he saw snow, and his only grave dislike in the United States was gravy. Roberto also was from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

I am sad in return to Brasil so soon, you were really my friends, Redbank Valley was my second home, I wish all the world lucky for you, Seniors.

"Mother is a Freshman" is a comedy, based on a mother's attendance to Pointer College as a freshman with her sophomore daughter. The trouble all begins when Dean Gillingham, played by Dave McDonald, does his best to expel Bonnie Schawl as the mother, Abigail Fortitude Abbott.

Nick Bain in the role of Professor Michaels has every girl captivated by his charm, good looks, and intelligence. The campus "big shot", as played by Ken Kline, nearly loses his girl Susan Abbott, played by Linda Troup, to this handsome Professor. The other college boys, Dennie Copenhaver, Paul Edder, and Gene Dinger, have the same problem with their girls, Connie Laughlin, Gail Brooks, and Nickie Cherico. Cindy French provided quite a laugh as she worried over her blind date.

Sara Blotzer, as the housemother, keeps a careful watch on all her girls. Other college coeds include Shirley Gourley, the Pointer bookworm, and Karen Shoemaker, a sweet, gentle, female who simply adores the Professor.

Directed by Miss Lewis and Miss Innocent with the aid of Butch Shilling and Sid Greenawalt, backstage crew, the play was a huge success bringing in over $400 for the Senior Class. The stage was set by Mr. Yount and his art department. The make-up was headed by Pam Doverspike.

IN MEMORY

of Mrs. Laura M. Rumbaugh who died in the Saint Francis Hospital on December 15, 1968. Her eighteen years of service at Redbank will always be remembered by the faculty, the students and the administration.

She was a registered nurse and a graduate of Saint Francis Hospital School of Nursing. Her service extended well beyond the routine of school nurse into the American Cancer Society and the American Red Cross. She had been active also in community affairs as well, including the New Bethlehem Business and Professional Women's Club, Widnoon United Methodist Church, Pennsylvania State Education Association, Pennsylvania Nurses Association, the Salvation Army, and the Armstrong County Welfare Board.

Jim,
Good luck in the future. To a cool kid in my homeroom.

To a groovy ^{guy} whose old man owns the groovy store down
Jungle

To my comrade on the Western Front, it was great collecting sovereigns and junk of that type. I enjoyed our great football talks and the such. Best of wishes and great luck in the future..

Comrade Larry

To Jim
a real nice kid we call Morgan. Good Luck in the future, Morgan & mean Jim.
